

NorthPortSM
FLORIDA

achieve anything

Empower Yourself

Feel the sweat trickle down your temple as you push through the rough terrain of mountain bike trails along the Myakkahatchee Creek or along the sandy flats of the Myakka State Forest. Push yourself for an extra mile during a half-day kayak trip. Challenge yourself to run farther, canoe harder, walk faster, or cycle more in North Port, Florida.

"The City of North Port offers miles of lush natural trails, more than 80 miles of waterways, weaving walking paths and sidewalks, and the opportunity to Achieve Anything."

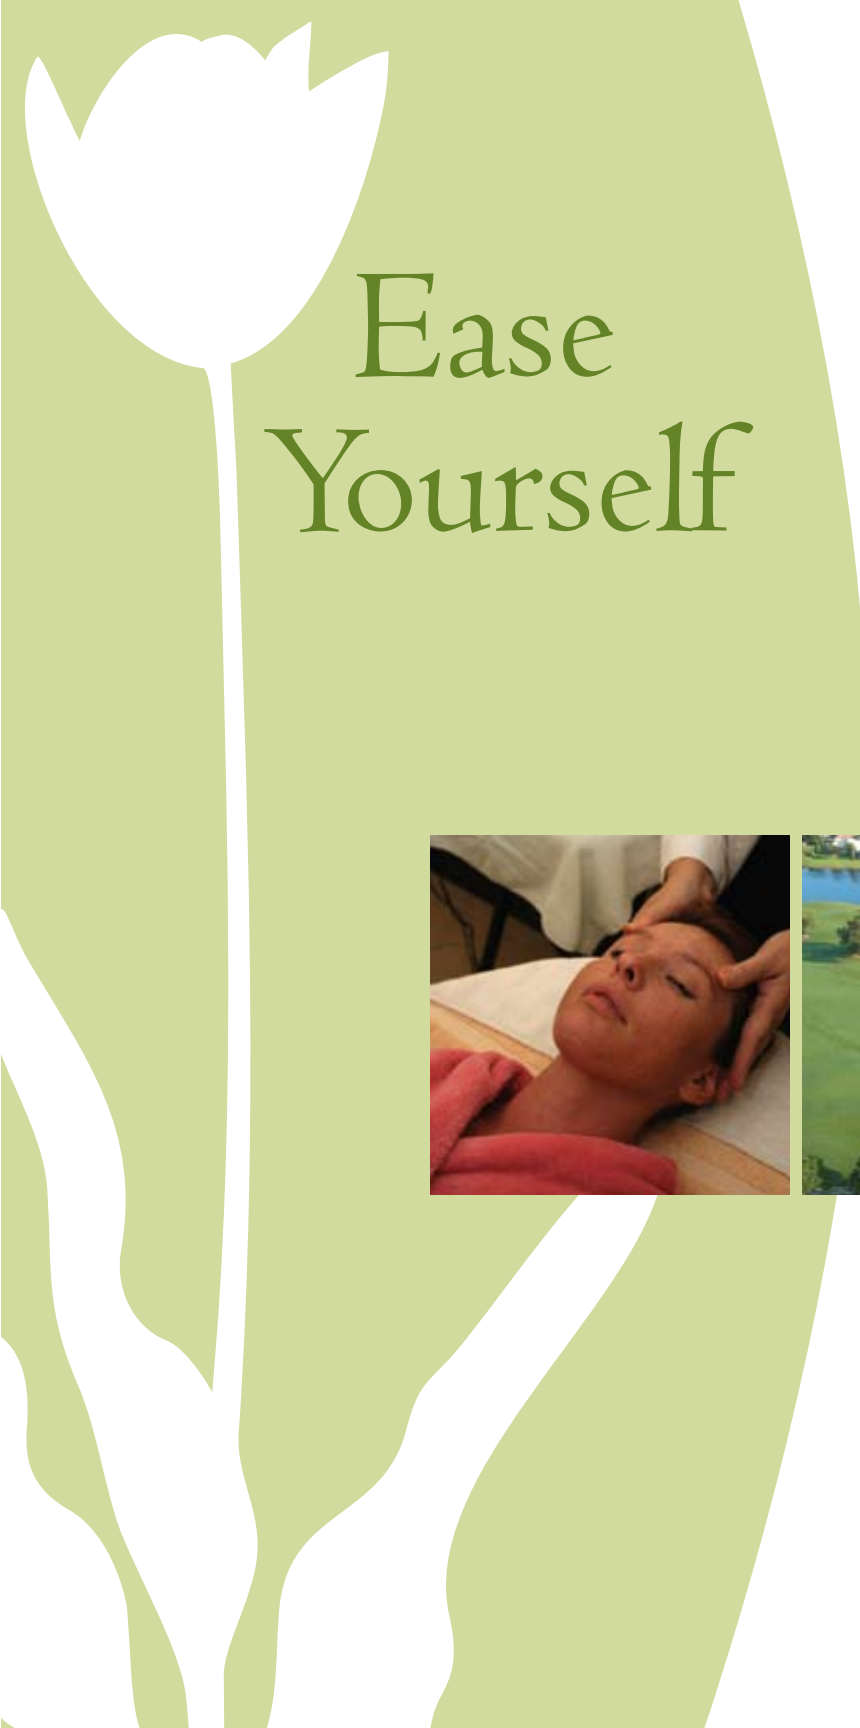

Inspire Yourself

Be dazzled by a performance onstage inside the second largest performance hall in Sarasota County. Listen to the rhythmic strings of a local guitar player during an afternoon jam session inside a local music shop. Find your inner self while learning to paint water colors on a blank canvas inside the North Port Art Center. This up-and-coming community offers a variety of artistic opportunities for both the burgeoning and more experienced artists.

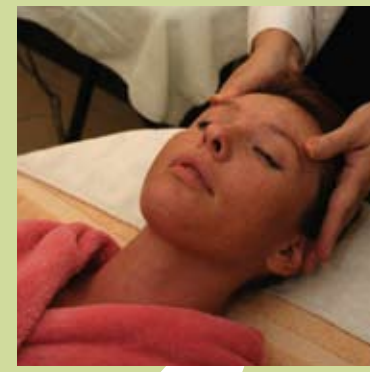

“Whether you have mastered your art, or just want to learn something new, the City of North Port is full of opportunity.”

Ease Yourself

Close your eyes and enjoy the soothing waters of Warm Mineral Springs as you soak in the healing power of its minerals. Refresh your mental state with a massage at one of North Port's many local spas. Take a stroll beneath North Port's pine and oak canopy at the Myakkahatchee Creek Environmental Park and experience the joy of watching local wildlife. Watch the horizon morph into hues of orange, pink, and blue from a beautiful Southwest Florida golf course. Inside the City of North Port, it is natural to feel vital.

"Located in Sarasota County between Tampa and Fort Myers, North Port offers a unique natural oasis where you can connect to what is important."

Enrich Yourself

Enlighten yourself inside a lecture hall during an evening seminar led by a local university professor. Learn the science behind creating silk art in a classroom at the North Port Art Center. Stretch your mind and explore North America's archeological history at Little Salt Springs. Learn how to navigate Southwest Florida's waterways during a boating course offered on the banks of a pristine creek in North Port.

"The City of North Port is so young and so fresh, that the possibilities are wide open."

Enjoy Yourself

Play a family game of tag or softball at one of the City's community parks. Spin the kids on tire swings, or try to keep up on state-of-the-art climbing gyms. Host a picnic under Southwest Florida's blue sky with friends and family. Attend one of the many family-friendly festivals in North Port. Most importantly, spend quality time with the ones you love. North Port is a place where potential is unlimited.

"Home to more than 10,000 school children, the City of North Port offers many activities that celebrate time well-spent together."

achieve anything

Visit cityofnorthport.com

City of North Port
4970 City Hall Boulevard
North Port, FL 34286
(941) 429-7000

achieve anything